Introduction of Shakespeare's Poetry by Krishna Kumar I Bcom CA

Activity of the Club – narration of the poem “The Seven Ages of Man “ by Ramya IB.A. Student

The Seven Ages of Man

William Shakespeare

- All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players;
They have their exits and their entrances, And one man in his time plays many parts,
5 His acts being seven ages. At first the infant,
Mewling and puking in the nurse's arms;
And then the whining schoolboy, with his satchel
And shining morning face, creeping like snail
Unwillingly to school. And then the lover, 10 Sighing like furnace, with a woeful ballad Made to his mistress' eyebrow. Then a soldier, Full of strange oaths, and bearded like the pard, Jealous in honor, sudden and quick in quarrel, Seeking the bubble reputation
15 Even in the cannon's mouth. And then the justice,
In fair round belly with good capon lined,
With eyes severe and beard of formal cut, Full of wise saws and modern instances; And so he plays his part. The sixth age shifts
20 Into the lean and slippered pantaloon,
With spectacles on nose and pouch on side;
His youthful hose, well saved, a world too wide
For his shrunk shank; and his big manly voice,
Turning again toward childish treble, pipes
25 And whistles in his sound. Last scene of all,
That ends this strange eventful history,
Is second childishness and mere oblivion,
Sans teeth, sans eyes, sans taste, sans everything.

Student: Ma'am, can I talk to you for a minute?

Teacher: What is it, my boy?

Student: I am very weak in English and that's why my classmates laugh at me. I don't know how to improve my English.

Teacher : Well, you mustn't feel bad about this. Just keep in mind that learning English is essential nowadays as it is the key to success.

Student: Ma'am, kindly give me some suggestions on how I can improve.

Teacher: Well, start with reading English newspapers. The Telegraph would be an easy one for you.

Student: Will it be enough?

Teacher: Not really. You must watch English news and English movies too. Try to communicate in English with your friends. That will help you the most.

Student: Thank you, ma'am.

Teacher: Remember, learning English properly, will help you to expand your knowledge. It will help you in higher studies too and most importantly, it will help you to score more in the job interviews.
