ENGLISH LANGUAGE DAY

English Language Day is celebrated in the Department of English on 23 April 2024 which is both the birthday and date of death of William Shakespeare. As well as being the English language's most famous playwright, Shakespeare had a significant impact on modern-day English. Shakespeare's creativity with language meant he contributed hundreds of new words and phrases: 'gossip'; 'fashionable' and 'lonely' were all first used by Shakespeare. He also invented phrases like 'break the ice', 'faint-hearted' and 'love is blind'.

Strengthening English Language Teaching and Learning - Orientation Workshop for Semester 3 and Semester 4

The Commissionerate of Collegiate Education has been striving to improve quality in the GDCs and PACs of Andhra Pradesh. As most of our students belong to the weaker and marginalised sections and come from rural backgrounds, the imparting of English Communication Skills plays a vital role in shaping their future.

Keeping the New Education Policy and its focus on Communication Skills and Employability and the introduction of Single Majors in view to empower the English Communication Skills of Students, the Commissionerate has come up with the idea of teaching English Proficiency Skills of UG students in Semesters 3 and 4 by training and engaging the English teachers in a purposeful manner to improve the employability of students by strengthening their English Communication Skills.

To achieve this, workbooks in the Activity Based method are being designed by trained experts in collaboration with EFLU for Semester 3 and 4. The Student's Workbook and the Teacher's Manual along with Key are ready for Semester 3 and the same pattern will be followed for Semester 4 also. These books are designed with a special focus on the LSRW skills in tune with the latest teaching and assessment methods and are different from the traditional English language textbooks.

As this is going to start a new era in the teaching of the English language in Government Degree Colleges, an orientation workshop for all the English Lecturers in GDCs about the contents and methodology of the books is planned to be conducted on 24-04-2024 at Government College for Women(A), Guntur.

In view of the above, Our English Faculty attended Strengthening English Language Teaching and Learning - Orientation Workshop for Semester 3 and Semester 4 conducted on 24-04-2024 at Government College for Women(A), Guntur.
